Love

AND EMPTY WORDS

Miłość i puste słowa

It is an intimate story of love in the face of an incurable disease, suffering, anger and powerlessness.

The protagonists are Adam and Wanda, a long-time married couple. He is healthy, but she suffers from Alzheimer's disease. The starting point of the story is the moment when the woman's condition starts to deteriorate rapidly and her amnesia gradually becomes more and more intense. Adam looks after his wife alone every day, twenty-four hours a day. He washes her, feeds her and changes her diapers. He constantly reminds her of their old life. He shows her their old home movies from the past, when they were both young and in love. Adam has decided that he will not abandon Wanda, against the advice of doctors and family. He decides he will not do it even when she forgets his name. He knows that her eyes are always looking for him. Will he be able to keep his promise?
